

DIXIE WINNER IN NEW YORK BY HUGE MAJORITY

Jersey, electing Woodrow Wilson, former president of Princeton University, by a handsome plurality, though Colonel Roosevelt did not actively oppose him.

Colonel Roosevelt was defeated in his own election district by 60, in his own county of Nassau by 300, and probably in his own congressional district. Martin W. Littleton, Democratic candidate for Congress, had a plurality in the county over Congressman Cocks, who was often a spokesman of Colonel Roosevelt when the colonel was President. Returns at this hour indicate Mr. Littleton's election by just about the plurality he received in Colonel Roosevelt's county.

Get State Senate.

In New York the Democrats have apparently secured control of the State Senate, but have lost the Assembly, and the Legislature on joint ballot is Republican, and the Republicans will elect a Senator to succeed Dewey. That is the only solace which the Republicans derive from the New York election. They have sustained a heavy loss in Congressmen, as well as in State Senators. The present Congressmen most overwhelmingly defeated in this State is Herbert Parsons, son of John E. Parsons, of the sugar trust, and Lieutenant for Colonel Roosevelt in his fight against the Old Guard in the State.

Henry George, son of the theorist and single tax advocate, apparently has a small majority over William S. Bennett. But for the defeat of Roosevelt adherents in Manhattan, the colonel's friends had consolation in the defeat of Congressman Millington, an adherent of Vice-President Sherman, in Mr. Sherman's home district of Onondaga and Herkimer. It was Congressman Millington that defeated Colonel Roosevelt's nephew, Mr. Robinson, for the Republican nomination after Colonel Roosevelt had come out openly in the young man's favor.

In New York the surprising feature of the election was that the Republican vote fell off more heavily up-State than it did in Greater New York. In Greater New York the Democratic plurality was considerably exceeded in the year when Bird S. Coler ran against former Governor Odell. The up-State Republicans have seldom if ever come down with such a small majority. It being estimated that Stimson, Republican candidate for Governor, has not more than 45,000 plurality in up-State counties. A feature of the election up-State was that the Democrats carried the small cities and industrial centers, in which the Republicans appealed to the labor vote. The Democrats carried Geneva, Hornell, Niagara Falls, Poughkeepsie, Elmira and many other cities of the third class.

Hearst Vote Small.

The Hearst vote in the State was also surprisingly small. In many of the former Hearst strongholds Hopper ran ahead of Hearst, who was a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. In Greater New York the Hearst vote does not exceed 40,000. Returns for the Greater New York districts show plainly that the Hearst strength was exerted in an effort to elect Stimson.

In Kentucky Calhoun Powers, thrice convicted for the assassination of Goebel and not long out of prison was elected to Congress by 3,000, carrying every county in his district except his home county of Laurel. Incomplete returns from Kansas indicate the defeat of Governor Stubbs and insurgent Republicans in the Second, Fifth and Sixth districts. Chairman Martin of the Democratic State Committee, claims the election of Hodges (Democrat) for Governor and three candidates for Congress.

Joseph Cannon, Speaker of the House, is elected by the biggest majority the district has given for ten years. Seno Payne is elected by a plurality but little short of normal John Dalzell, another of Speaker Cannon's lieutenants, is re-elected in Pennsylvania. J. Sloat Fassett, a supporter of Speaker Cannon, but one of the Old Guard upholders of Roosevelt at Saratoga, is defeated.

The situation in Congress is something of a guess, even at 12:15. The best returns up to that hour indicate the following:

The Republicans lose Senators from Indiana and Maine, where the election has already been held; Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Jersey, New York and Ohio. This means that the Republican majority in the United States Senate is cut from 25 to 12.

The House of Representatives will be Democratic probably 229, a Democratic gain of 35. The new House will have two Socialists from Wisconsin.

Dewey May Lose.

New York, November 8.—Incomplete returns indicate the election of 37 Republicans and 63 Democrats to the Assembly. If correct, the Legislature will be Democratic by joint ballot, and a Democrat will succeed Senator Dewey.

Claims Eight Democrats.

Newark, N. J., November 8.—The Democratic State headquarters at 10:30 issued a statement claiming the election of Democrats in eight of the ten congressional districts. The re-election of Representatives Loudenslager in the First and Garner in the Second, Republicans, was conceded.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., November 8.—Governor W. R. Stubbs, Republican, has undoubtedly been re-elected, but by a decreased majority, over George Hodges. Six of the eight Republican Congressmen will be returned, it appears. The districts in doubt are the Third and the Sixth.

Des Moines, Ia., November 8.—Early indications are that the Iowa cities containing half the vote have inclined to a Democratic landslide. Claude Porter, Democrat, for Governor, claims the election by 10,000, but the Republicans declare the result is in doubt, that belated county districts will wipe out Porter's lead.

The normal Republican majority in the State is about 60,000.

California.

San Francisco, Cal., November 8.—Seventy precincts in the State outside the city of San Francisco give for

New Jersey's Governor-Elect

WOODROW WILSON.

Governor Johnson, Republican, 5,137; Bell, Democrat, 4,549.

Heavy Republican Losses.—Forty-four districts in the State give Lewis 5,981 and Wilson 7,346, making Lewis's plurality 2,615. Fort carried the same districts by 3,355, showing a Republican loss of 3,040 from three years ago. County estimates received at the Secretary of State's office at 10 o'clock give the following pluralities: Passaic, Lewis by 2,500; Camden, Lewis by 3,000; Mercer, Lewis by 500; Cape May, Lewis by 800; Burlington, Lewis by 1,000.

North Carolina.—[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—Wadesboro, N. C., November 8.—From best returns obtainable to-night from counties in the Seventh Congressional District R. N. Page, Democrat, is elected over J. J. Parker, Republican, by increased majority. A conservative estimate gives Page 15,000 votes and Parker 9,000. Two years ago Page was elected over Walser, with a majority of 3,325.

Longworth Wins Again.—Cincinnati, O., November 8.—The re-election of Congressman Nicholas Longworth in the First by an increased majority, and of H. P. Goebel in the Second, by slight increase, seems assured, by slight increase, seems assured.

Nebraska.—Omaha, Neb., November 8.—At 9 o'clock returns indicate the election of Hitchcock, Democrat, for United States Senate, by 20,000; Dahlman, Democrat, for Governor, by 5,000. Aldrich, Republican, is leading in the State, and if present majorities continue, will carry Douglas county with 40,000 majority.

Iowa.—Des Moines, Ia., November 8.—The Republicans claim all congressional districts except the Second, Fourth and Sixth.

Delaware.—Wilmington, Del., November 8.—Returns from Delaware arrived slowly. At 10 P. M. the indications were that the State had gone Republican by a safe majority. This includes the Legislature. In Wilmington the Republicans will probably elect three of the five legislative representatives.

Alabama.—Montgomery, Ala., November 8.—Returns indicate that a large vote was cast throughout the State to-day, and that Emmet O'Neal, Democrat, is elected by 50,000 majority. Burnett and Howard, for Congress in the Seventh, are both claiming election, and at 7 P. M. the race seems close. Extreme prohibitionists scratched Neal and some Democrats scratched Seed. Most of the prohibitionists have voted for the Democratic nominee.

California.—San Francisco, Cal., November 8.—The ticket is so long that the count is sure to be late. Drizzling rain hurt Republicans, as it kept many away from the polls. Fifty precincts came from Los Angeles, where the two candidates for Governor seem to be running evenly. Six incomplete precincts in Los Angeles city give for Governor, Johnson, Republican, 503; Bell, Democrat, 501.

Concord, N. H., November 8.—Indications point to the election of Bass, Reform Republican candidate for Governor, by a plurality of at least 5,000. Congress from the Second District, Cyrus A. Sulloway is also believed to be elected from the First District by a greatly reduced majority.

The Legislature will be Republican by a good margin. There is no United States Senator to be elected this year.

Wisconsin.—Milwaukee, Wis., November 8.—Official returns in excess of the Socialists have carried Milwaukee county by 3,000.

Idaho.—Boise, Idaho, November 8.—Scattering returns indicate the election of the entire Republican ticket, headed by Brady for Governor, but by reduced majorities. French, an insurgent, seems certain of election to Congress.

Maryland.—Baltimore, Md., November 8.—Maryland to-day elected five Democrats and one Republican Congressman, a gain of two for the Democrats. The last delegation was composed of three Republicans and three Democrats. The Congressmen elected to-day are: First District, J. Harry Covington (Democrat); re-elected; Second, J. Fred Talbot (Democrat); re-elected; Third, George K. King (Democrat), who succeeds John Kronmiller (Republican); Fourth, J. Charles Linthicum (Democrat); Fifth, Thomas Parran (Republican), who succeeds Sydney Mudd (Republican); Sixth, David J. Lewis (Democrat), who succeeds George A. Pearre. The tariff and high prices of food were the strong pleas made by the Democrats.

Clean Sweep in Arkansas.—Little Rock, Ark., November 8.—The Democrats made a clean sweep in today's congressional election, electing all nominees. A fair vote was polled.

All Democrats Elected.—Austin, Tex., November 8.—The entire Democratic ticket for State offices has been elected by majorities larger than those given Governor Campbell two years ago. All Democratic congressional nominees were elected.

West Virginia.—Wheeling, W. Va., November 8.—Returns at 10 o'clock indicate that the Democrats of West Virginia have made large gains in every section of the State. The election of John W. Davis for Congress, First District, W. G. Brown, Second District, and John M. Hamilton, Fourth District, are claimed by the Democrats. Big gains in the Third and Fifth Districts are also recorded. Five State Senators and thirty or more members of the Legislature are also gained according to the claims, but the results are so close the official count will be necessary.

The Republicans concede large losses in the State.

Georgia.—Atlanta, Ga., November 8.—William Howard, Congressman from the Eighth District, was defeated to-day by Sam Tribble. This was the most important election in the State, owing to the fact both ran as Democrats. The chief argument against Howard was he had fought for the perpetual Cannon rules.

Littleton Elected.—New York, November 8.—Late returns from Colonel Roosevelt's Congress district indicate the election of Littleton, Democrat, over Cocks, Republican, by 300, which is just about the plurality which the Democrat candidate got from Nassau.

Tennessee.—Nashville, Tenn., November 8.—Summed up, the result of to-day's election appears to be B. W. Hooper, Republican and fusionist, chosen Governor by 15,000 to 18,000 majority; B. A. Enloe, Democrat and fusionist, by a like majority, and a possible small fusion majority in the Legislature. Both sides claim the Senate.

Most of the Middle and West Tennessee Democratic counties, nearly all of which went for independent judicial ticket in August last, returned to the regular column to-day, but by such small majorities that they were overwhelmed by the heavy Republican vote in East Tennessee counties. In the congressional races, R. W. Austin, Republican, appears to have defeated N.

Democratic Elected in Kentucky.—Louisville, Ky., November 8.—While a light vote was cast over Kentucky to-day, the Democrats carried the following districts: First, Olie H. James, Democrat; no opposition; Second, A. C. Stanley, Democrat; Third, Thomas, Democrat, district normally Republican; Fourth, Johnson, Democrat; Fifth, Sherley, Democrat. All of the above Congressmen were re-elected.

Raleigh, N. C., November 8.—North Carolina election indicates Democratic majorities of about 50,000, with all ten Congressmen Democratic. In the three districts Republican at the last election, the Democratic majori-

Memphis, Tenn., November 8.—At 9 o'clock estimates based on conservative lines show Hooper, Republican, elected Governor over Senator Taylor, Democrat, by 30,000 majority.

Ohio.—Columbus, Ohio, November 8.—At 9:30 P. M. Democratic State Chairman Nichols said the returns indicated a Democratic landslide beyond a doubt. The plurality of Governor Harmon in Hamilton county is now estimated at 15,000. In Cuyahoga county, 23,000; in Montgomery county, 4,500. Franklin and Lucas counties are in doubt, with the probability that the Republicans will carry the former.

Arkansas.—Little Rock, Ark., November 8.—Arkansas voted for Congressmen alone to-day, the State election having taken place in September. The State returned a full Democratic delegation to Congress.

Claims 40,000 Plurality.—Trenton, N. J., November 8.—At 11:10 P. M. the Trenton Times claimed a plurality of 40,000 for Woodrow Wilson, and that the incoming Legislature would be Democratic, thus insuring a Democratic United States Senator to succeed John Keen.

Rhode Island.—Providence, R. I., November 8.—The re-election of Republican Congressman Republican Governor and State ticket and Republican Mayor of Providence is indicated by early returns from 355 districts. These districts comprise the small committee towns, which are always strongly Republican. For Governor, Lewis A. Waterman, the Democratic candidate, has in these districts reduced by over 1,000 votes Governor Pothier's figures of last year, when Pothier had a plurality of 12,000.

In spite of this, Republicans claim Pothier's re-election by at least 5,000 plurality and the election of the rest of the State ticket is conceded.

The fight in the First Congressional District is closest of all, but in the 35 districts which have been heard from, Congressman W. P. Sheffield has made a gain of 250 over his figures for the same districts in 1908.

In the Second District the election of former Governor Utter, of Westport, Republican candidate for Congress, over his Democratic opponent, Thomas F. Conney, of Cranston, is conceded by the Democrats.

Early indications also point to a Republican majority in the General Assembly. This Republican Assembly will in January elect a United States Senator to succeed Aldrich.

Gives Wilson 20,000 Plurality.—Jersey City, November 8.—Hudson county gave Wilson 20,000 plurality, and elects Edward Kenny, William S. Davidson, Cornelius Ford, Peter H. James, James C. Agnew, James H. Christie, Charles E. Simpson, Thos. M. Donnelly, Charles M. Egan, Thos. F. Martin, Thomas F. A. Griffin and James J. McGrath, to the Assembly.

The county re-elects James F. Fielder, State Senator, and Eugene F. Kincaid, Congressman in the Ninth, and James Hamill in the Tenth.

Smith Re-Elected.—Des Moines, Iowa, November 8.—The re-election of Congressman Walter I. Smith, a member of the Cannon club, is conceded by 2,500 plurality over U. F. Cleveland. This is a reduction of 2,000 in the Smith vote.

One Roosevelt Wins.—New York, November 8.—F. D. Roosevelt has been elected to the State Senate in the Sixth District, a very distant relative of the colonel.

Carry Methodist Resort.—[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]—New York, November 8.—For the first time in history the Powers have carried Ashbury Park, the great Methodist resort on the New Jersey coast. Chancellor Day of Syracuse University, sometimes goes there.

North Dakota Republican.—Fargo, N. D., November 8.—The State has elected a Republican Legislature, which insures the re-election of McCumber to the United States Senate, and the election of Congressman Gronna to all the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Johnson. Both Republican candidates for Congress have won.

Democratic Elected in Kentucky.—Louisville, Ky., November 8.—While a light vote was cast over Kentucky to-day, the Democrats carried the following districts: First, Olie H.
